DISCUSSION: (Jeff Smith)

- Budget 2022 Discussion
 - Revenues kept closely the same could possibly change some things.
 - Discussion about CHIPS money that is not being spent each year. If all was used this year could have spent over 233 thousand.
 - Discussion about adding CHIPS money line item to the budget so going forward the board would know how much is available to spend
 - All board members to take a copy of the tentative budget home and read over, come back with any changes they would like to see at October meeting.
 - Going to have Public Hearing in November for 2022 budget.
- Discussion about Joint Youth line item. Not sure if this is going to continue, not sure if anyone is running it.
- Discussion about extending solar law moratorium

MOTION to adopt a resolution to extend the moratorium enacted in Local Law #1 of 2020, "Moratorium of Installations of Solar Facilities" in the Town of Taylor, New York, which local law was filed with the Secretary of State on April 4, 2021, for an additional period of 6 months was made by Riley Closson and seconded by TJ Law.
All in favor, motion carried.

Planning Board: (Barb Allen)

- Will work fees out for violations and penalties from old paperwork and bring any changes to the board for approval.
- 2 sub divisions going on right now. First time the Planning Board has brought in money instead of it costing money.

Historian: (Sharon Eltz - Absent)

- None

Building/Code Enforcement: (Derek Raimo- Absent)

- Report filed

Highway: (presented by Jeff Smith – Chris Smith, Absent)

- Doran Hill Rd is done.
- Discussion about what to be done on a small portion of Potter Hill Rd that is really soft since CHIPS money was spent on it.
- New salt shed is up.
- Going to get state bid for new truck.
- Discussion of unallocated funds, possible Potter Hill bridge will need to be completely redone and we have to pay for it upfront before FEMA will reimburse.
